

Entrepreneurs' Organization

EO helps entrepreneurs achieve their full potential.

We pursue partnership and engagement opportunities to grow the EO brand and better understand the needs of entrepreneurs.

- EO has been helping entrepreneurs achieve transformational growth since 1987.
- EO creates a space where members can have real conversations and learn from one another by sharing experiences, successes and failures.
- Our members are dedicated to helping each other succeed. Members report boosting their business growth by more than three times the average S&P 500 Index.
- To qualify, entrepreneurs must be the founder, co-founder, owner or controlling shareholder of a company with an annual gross revenue exceeding US$1 million.

Companies such as these are led by proud EO members

Brian Scudamore EO Vancouver

Brian Scudamore is a serial entrepreneur and author. At 19 years old, he pioneered the industry of professional junk removal with 1-800-GOT-JUNK®, turning a chore people avoid into an exceptional customer service experience.

Rolf Schrömgens EO Germany – Rhine Ruhr

Rolf Schrömgens is an innovative German entrepreneur, Founder and Managing Director for trivago N.V. He is known for pushing the boundaries of data-driven product development and rethinking the way that tech companies nurture and develop their talents.

Sadie Lincoln EO Portland

Sadie Lincoln is the Co-Founder/CEO of barre3, a fitness company focused on teaching people to be balanced in body and empowered from within. Featured on Inc.'s Female Founders 100 list, Sadie has appeared on NPR's How I Built This.

Samer Kurdi EO Saudi Arabia – Jeddah

Samer Kurdi is Chairman at Sunbulah Group, a leader in food manufacturing and distribution, with multiple manufacturing sites in nearly 45 countries. Samer is also a Shark on Shark Tank Middle East.
